The Hottest Restaurants in Miami Right Now, January 2017

by Olee Fowler | @oleefowler | Jan 9, 2017, 8:00am EST

More often than not, tipsters, readers, friends and family of Eater have one question: Where should I eat right now? And while the Eater 38 is a crucial resource covering old standbys and neighborhood essentials across the city, it's not a chronicle of the 'it' places of the moment. Thus, we offer the Eater Heatmap, which will change continually to always highlight where the foodie crowds are flocking to at the moment.

The qualifications for the the map is the restaurant has been around for less than 6 months and is serving up some cuisine that has the city buzzing. The restaurants are listed in this map in alphabetical order. New to the map this month are Bazaar Mar, Cake Thai Wynwood, Upland, Antico Pizza, Ono Poke Shop, Luke's Lobster, The Brick, Paradigm Kitchen and Olla, while Quinto La Huella and Halves & Wholes have departed. See the archive for past entries as well as further notes.

2 Barley, an American Brasserie

This Kendall favorite has gone through plenty of incarnations over the past few years, but this one has staying power.

Featuring a menu filled with gastropub fare with Latin and Asian touches, like pork belly and bone marrow, along with a nightly mac & cheese rotation, full raw bar, and even better yet — a full craft cocktail bar.

16 The Brick Restaurant

Kendall's dining scene is heating up. The latest addition is the farm-to-table concept, The Brick, featuring a menu by restaurant consultant Allen Susser and chef Evan Broomer it serves Southern cuisine like cauliflower mac n' cheese, chicken biscuits, grass-fed rib eye, plus a full bar.
